

Tables

Table 1:	The Population of Europe, 1300–1700 (in Millions)	80
Table 2:	Population of Cities in England, France, Italy, Spain, and the Netherlands, 1300–1700 City Year (Population in Thousands)	81
Table 3:	Population of Some Cities in Central Europe in the 14th–17th Centuries	83
Table 4:	Number of Textile Guilds and their Independent Members around the Year 1440	108
Table 5:	Ship Cargo (on Average), Hansa and Venice, 1300–1700	134
Table 6:	Mechanical Clocks in Europe in the 14th and 15th Centuries	165
Table 7:	Annual Expenditures of Knight Hans von Hosperg in Clöden (Saxony) in 1474	175
Table 8:	Wages (in Pennies) for Unskilled Labourers, Journeymen and Masters, in Construction in Nuremberg by Selected Years	176
Table 9:	Summer and Winter Wages in Construction in Nuremberg by Classification at the End of the 16th Century	176
Table 10:	Number of Mine Shares by Category of Holders in Joachimsthal	197
Table 11:	German, Latin and English Names of Manual Labourers in Mining	206
Table 12:	German and Latin Names of Administrators in Mining	207

Table 13: German and Latin Names of District Administrators in Mining	208
Table 14: Number and Types of Mining Workers in the 16th Century	214
Table 15: Weekly Wages (in Pennies) of Mining People in Schemnitz and Hoderitzsch in 1527	215
Table 16: Amounts of Iron in Europe in the 16th Century (in Tons)	225
Table 17: Europe: Wrought Iron Production in 1500	226
Table 18: Number of Seasonal Workers in Mining (Average)	229
Table 19: The Number of Workers, Iron Industry of the Upper Palatinate, 1475	232
Table 20: Number and Types of Seasonal Mining Workers at the End of the 16th Century in Sulzbach	234
Table 21: Number, Type of Mine Worker, and Weekly Wages for One Pit 1595/1596	235