

Contents

CHARLOTTE BAKER AND HANNAH GRAYSON
Introduction: Fictions of African Dictatorship	I
PART I Portrait of a Dictator	II
ANGIE EPIFANO
1 The Image of Sékou Touré: Art and the Making of Postcolonial Guinea	13
KHALID LYAMPLAHY
2 From Dictatorship to Self-Constitution: Historical Fiction and Aesthetics of Tyranny in Bensalem Himmich's Le Calife de l'épouvante	37
RITA KERESZTESI
3 Bekolo's 'Dictator': Televised	57
PART II Performance and Myth-Making	77
ELINE KUENEN
4 Creation through Inversion: The Carnavalesque Postcolonial State in the Novels of Alain Mabanckou and In Koli Jean Bofane	79
MARIA MURESAN
5 From Ritual to Fiction: The Wizard of the Crow	99

BINDI NGOUTÉ LUCIEN

6 Mythical Representations of Dictatorial Power and their Real Referents in the Novels of Ahmadou Kourouma 117

PART III Compromised Freedoms 139

ALYA EL HOSSEINY

7 The Author and the Authoritarian: Gamal al-Ghitani’s al-Zaynī Barakāt 141

KERRY VINCENT

8 The One Who Does His Majesty’s Bidding: Censorship and the Banality of Power in siSwati Crime Fiction and Drama 155

MADELEINE WILSON

9 ‘My characters, my plots, are under my pen’: Authority as dictatorship in King-Aribisala’s The Hangman’s Game 175

PART IV Forms of Resistance 197

F. FIONA MOOLLA

10 Figuring the Dictator in the Horn of Africa: Nuruddin Farah’s Dictatorship Trilogy and Ahmed Omar Askar’s Short Stories 199

ASANTE LUCY MTENJE

11 ‘Under the Lion’s Gaze’: Female Sexualities under Dictatorship in Selected Fiction from Malawi 215

LORENZO MARI AND TERESA SOLIS

12 Mighty Mouth, Minor Literature: Siad Barre's Dictatorship
in Italian Postcolonial Literature 235

Notes on Contributors 251

Index 255

