

Contents

Ágnes Veszelszki Preface.....	7
---	---

TRUTH, TIME AND VISUALITY

Kristóf Nyíri Towards a Theory of Common-Sense Realism	17
--	----

Sybille Krämer Truth in Testimony: Or can a Documentary Film ‘Bear Witness’? Some Reflections on the Difference between Discursive and Existential Truth.....	29
--	----

Valeria Giardino Space and Action to Reason: from Gesture to Mathematics	41
--	----

Daniel L. Golden Visual Management of Time.....	51
---	----

Javier E. Carreño Husserl on the Right Timing of Depictions.....	59
--	----

VISUAL RHETORIC, ICONOGRAPHY

Petra Aczél Rediscovering the Visual in Rhetorical Tradition: Persuasion as Visionary in Suasory Discourse	69
---	----

Timothy Barney The Rhetorical Lives of (Cold War) Maps.....	83
---	----

Orsolya Endrődy-Nagy Paintings and Illuminated Manuscripts as Sources of the History of Childhood: Conceptions of Childhood in the Renaissance	91
---	----

ONLINE VISUALITY

Krisztina Szabó

Digital and Visual Literacy: The Role of Visuality in Contemporary Online Reading..... 103

Gergely Havasmezői

Images in the Hungarian Online News 113

Trischa Goodnow

The Selfie Moment: The Rhetorical Implications of Digital Self Portraiture for Culture 123

James E. Katz and Elizabeth Thomas Crocker

Selfies as interpersonal communication..... 131

Ágnes Veszelszki

#time, #truth, #tradition. An Image-text Relationship on Instagram:
photo and hashtag 139

VISUALITY IN TEACHING AND LEARNING

Matthew Crippen

Dewey on Arts, Sciences and Greek Philosophy 153

András Benedek

SysBook as a Visual Learning Frame 161

János Horváth Cz.

Micro-content Generation Framework as a Learning Innovation 171

Notes on Contributors..... 181

Index..... 187