Table of Content

List of Figures, Illustrations and Maps.......................................................................................................9

Machteld Venken
Introduction: Borderland Studies Meets Child Studies.
A European Encounter ........................................................................................................................11

Catherine Maurer & Gabrielle Ripplinger
Destitute Children in Alsace from the Beginning of the Twentieth Century to the End of the 1930s:
Orphan Care in Strasbourg, in between France and Germany .........................................................43

Ruth Leiserowitz
Childhood in the Memel Region ........................................................................................................65

Julien Fuchs

Beata Halicka
The Everyday Life of Children in Polish-German Borderlands During the Early Postwar Period .................................................................115

Tobias Haimin Wung-Sung
‘We Remain What We Are’ ‘Wir bleiben was wir sind?’
North Schleswig German Identities in Children's Education After 1945.................................139

Andreas Fickers
Generational Conflicts, the Spirit of ‘68 and Cultural Emancipation in the German Speaking Community of Belgium. A Historical Essay About the ‘73 Generation .................................................................................................................................163

Deutsche Abstracts................................................................................................................................185

Notes on Contributors..............................................................................................................................191

Index of Places........................................................................................................................................193