List of Figures

Figure 1: Changes in days of absenteeism in percentages 1993-2002 ................... 31
Figure 2: Annual changes in days of absenteeism in percentages 1993-2002 ...... 31
Figure 3: Changes in early retirement cases due to inability/reduced ability to work in percentages 1993-2002 ..................................................................... 32 Figure 4: Mental health care services continuum from non-institutional to institutional care ............................................................................................. 34
Figure 5: Number of psychiatrists with and without social security contract ..... 36
Figure 6: Psychotherapists 1991-2002 ............................................................... 38
Figure 7: Beds in psychiatric hospitals and in psychiatric departments of general hospitals ............................................................................................ 40 Figure 8: Primary source of funding mental health care services within the health care sector ........................................................................................... 52
Figure 9: Mental health care financing structures in England .......................... 66
Figure 10: Mental health care financing structures in Germany ....................... 72
Figure 11: Prescription of psychotropic medication 1995-2002 ....................... 77
Figure 12: Costs of outpatient prescriptions of psychotropic medication 2002
by type of medication .................................................................................... 77
Figure 13: Mental health care financing structures in Lower Austria .............. 80
Figure 14: Quantification of monetary flows from public payers in Lower Austria, year 1999 .......................................................................................... 81
Figure 15: The semantic field of ‘mad’ ........................................................... 92