

Contents

Antje Kley What Literature Knows: An Introduction.....	9
Kai Merten “His ignorance were wise”: Gendered Knowledge in Love’s Labour’s Lost (1594/95) .....	27
Richard Nate “The pleasing visions I had formed”: Natural Knowledge and Self-Awareness in Jonathan Swift’s Satires .....	45
Albert Meier Access Denied: English Experiences in Karl Philipp Moritz’s Travel Report of 1782.....	65
Marcel Hartwig Fothergill’s Web: Transnational Quaker Networks and the Pennsylvania Medical Library .....	79
Anthony John Harding Wordsworth, The Excursion (1814), and the Crisis of Knowledge.....	93
Justus Conrad Gronau Romanticism and Anoetic Knowledge.....	113
Philipp Erchinger Curious to Know: John Clare’s “The Nightingale’s Nest” (1832).....	135
Maria Kaspirek Negotiating Authority: Literary and Medical Configurations of Knowledge in 19 th -Century America .....	155
Cord-Christian Casper The Fourth Dimension and Impossible Knowledge in Edwardian Speculative Fiction .....	173

Aleksandra Boss and Martin Klepper What Nancy Knew, What Carol Knew: Mass Literature and Knowledge .....	193
Matthias Bauer Scientific Knowledge and the Display Function of Literature: The White Hotel (1981) and Freud's Megalomania (2000) .....	215
Daniel Schäbler The Art of Deception: Knowledge Distribution in English Literature.....	235
Ann Spangenberg “We are only what we know”: Knowledge in David Mitchell’s Cloud Atlas (2004) .....	253
Jutta Zimmermann Eden Robinson’s Monkey Beach (2000) as Multi-Narrative: The Dialogic Relation of Indigenous and Western World Views.....	275
André Schwarck “Useless, off-beat information!”: Knowledge and Successiveness in Brian Friel’s Molly Sweeney (1994) .....	297
Anja Pistor-Hatam Historiography and the Production of Knowledge: The Mongol Period .....	319
List of Contributors .....	335