

Acknowledgements

This book could not have been achieved without the patient and good-humoured assistance of a wide number of peers. In helping us to reach further afield, we are particularly grateful to Professor Ariel Pizzorno at the Colegio Militar de la Nación, Colonel Bob Janssen at the African Conference of Commandants, Professor Sven Bernhard Gareis, at the George C Marshall Center, Commander Rostum Bautista at the National Defense College of the Philippines, and Colonel Tim Wordsworth and Wing Commander Mark Presley of the U.K. Armed Forces. Particular thanks are due to Dr. Akali Omeni for his cultural, editorial and theoretical insight, and to Victoria Syme-Taylor, for the creation of the PME Working Group that inspired this book.
