

Table of Contents

List of Contributors	7
Introduction	9
Jasone Cenoz and Durk Gorter
Chapter 1. Navigating between Languages: Multilingual Speakers' Perceptions	15
Eneritz Garro, Karmele Perez-Lizarralde, and Amaia Lersundi
Chapter 2. Background and Perspective of Compulsory Secondary Education Teachers When Working in the School Language in Their Disciplinary Areas	37
Thomas Wendeborn / Ralf Schlöffel
Chapter 3. Shifting Perspectives in Lateral Entrants on Their Way to Become Coequal Teachers	63
Itziar Iriondo, Itziar Plazaola and Teresa Zulaika
Chapter 4. How Can I Train Myself to Be an Expert Teacher? A Teaching Practicum Experience	87
Carme Flores
Chapter 5. Conceptualising Effective CLIL Teaching Practice: the ECTP Observation Tool	111
Mariona Casas, Llorenç Comajoan, Núria Medina, and Anna Vallbona
Chapter 6. Language Teaching and Teacher Training in Catalonia in the 21st Century: Plurilingualism in Practice	143
Nagore Ipiña and Begoña Pedrosa
Chapter 7. Perceptions towards Multilingual Practices in Teacher Education	163

Ainara Imaz Agirre and Agurtzane Bikuña

Chapter 8. Challenges in English as a Foreign Language Teaching in the Basque Country: Pre-service and In-service Teachers' Perspectives	183
-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----

Do Coyle

Chapter 9. Constructing Research Pathways from Multilingual Challenges to Pluriliteracies Practices	197
------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----