List of Figures

1.1: Selected macroeconomic indicators, 1990-2008 ............................................................... 30
1.4: Monthly earnings and household per-capita income inequality trends, 1991-2007 ...... 39
1.5: Index of remittances across quantiles of the total per-capita household income .......... 44
1.6: Structure and returns to education, 1991-2007 ................................................................. 51
1.7: Growth incidence curves for the inter-sectoral earnings-gap in rural areas .................. 60
2.1: Non-dualistic and dualistic economies, Chile and Honduras in the mid 2000s .......... 67
2.2: The labour market between the tradable and non-tradable sectors .............................. 71
2.3: Inter-sectoral earnings-gap and inequality in rural areas .................................................. 73
2.4: Honduran growth incidence curves of the inter-sectoral earnings-gap in rural areas ...... 76
2.5: Honduran GDP growth rates and the poverty headcount ratio .................................... 78
3.1: Distribution of the connectivity change indexes (all flows, 2002-2006) ......................... 95
3.2: Distribution potential wage differential, tertiary versus basic education or less ......... 101
3.3: The potential wage differential and the average household education ..................... 102
3.4: Potential wage differential and migration probabilities .................................................. 103
3.5: Distribution of the household education and migration probabilities from rural to urban communes .......................................................................................................... 104
A.1: Principal Honduran export markets, coffee and bananas, 1991-2007 ......................... 141